Dear Sir

Your communication of the 27th of July came duly to hand, in which you say that the name of Joseph White is not found on the rolls of Capt. H. Diggs' Company, but in your note you say that he served enough in Capt. Sales & Jarvis Company ~~enough~~ to entitle him to 80 acres of land, he says that he can, by giving himself some trouble, prove his service in Capt. Diggs' Company, but as his service in that company was very short, and perhaps would not increase his warrant to 160 acres if proved, he requests that you will at your earliest convenience forward his warrant for the 80 acres which you say he is entitled to.

Yours &c
